

- Animas valley late 1800's

- Producing beef, pork, potatoes, fruit, milk, cheese, wheat for the Silverton miners

Animas Valley: Bread Basket of the Region

DROVE OF CATTLE - DURANGO - COLO.

Mission Statement for the James Ranch

The integrity and distinction of the James Ranch is to be preserved for future generations by developing financially viable agricultural and related enterprises that sustain a profitable livelihood for the families directly involved, while improving the land and encouraging the use of all resources, natural and human, to their highest and best potential.

“A sustainable agriculture does not deplete soils or people”

Wendell Berry